

Historic Homes Tour

Featuring Six Homes Built During 1903 – 1930 with a Wide Variety of Architectural Styles

THE PEARL CHASE SOCIETY presents this year's Historic Homes Tour, featuring six (6) Upper Eastside homes, on May 18th.

The tour offers a rare opportunity to view six unique residences in one of the city's most historic neighborhoods. The homes were built between 1903 to 1930, and represent a variety of architecture styles, including Colonial, Mediterranean Villa, Monterey Spanish and Early Christian Byzantine.

Santa Barbara's Upper Eastside

During a visit to her family in 1907, Pearl

Mediterranean Villa

Chase resolved to beautify Santa Barbara, her home town. The Historic Homes Tour returns to its own origins in the Upper Eastside to celebrate the success of her vision. This tour features enchanting gardens, distinctive homes, and broad avenues all in one of the city's most historic residential neighborhoods.

Early Christian Architecture

The tour will take place on Sunday, May 18th, from 11 to 4pm. Tickets are $50 for non-members of the Society, $45 per person for current members of the Society, and $70 for a tour ticket and a first-time-only membership in the Society. Tickets are available by mailing a check to the Pearl Chase Society, Historic Homes Tour, P.O. Box 3131, Santa Barbara, CA 93130-3131. For information about the tour call 961-3938.
